

When Water Does Run Uphill: The Economics and Politics of Water in the 21st Century

Sponsored by the Institute for Water and Watersheds
541-737- 4032

Wednesdays, 4:00-5:30 pm
Owen Hall Room 102

CE 507/WRP 507
Seminar in Water Resources (1 cr)
PUBLIC WELCOME

Recommended Companion Course
WRP 505 or AREC 505
Journal Club (1 cr)
Wednesday, Noon-1pm
Gilmore Annex

Oct. 1 - Bill Jaeger, Oregon State University

The Klamath Water Crisis -- an economic perspective

Oct. 8 - Molly Whitney, National Fish & Wildlife Foundation

The Water Transactions Program in the Columbia Basin

Oct. 15 - Carlo Giupponi, University of Venice
Ca'Foscari

Climate change, water scarcity and agriculture in Italy: the common agricultural policy and its relationships with adaptation and mitigation policies

Oct. 22 - Janie Chermak, University of New Mexico

Residential water pricing: economics and policy issues

Oct. 29 - Senator David Nelson, Pendleton, Oregon

"Oregon's Oil"

Nov. 5 – John Haines, MercyCorps, Portland, OR

Microfinance and Water

Nov. 12 - Chuck Howe, University of Colorado

Water Law vs. Economic Efficiency in Water Administration

Nov. 19 - Ron Griffin, Texas A&M

Texas experiences with water marketing and water pricing

Dec. 3 - Clay Landry, WestWater Research, LLC

The New Economy of Water: Changing Attitudes and Emerging Markets for Water