

Photo: Chinese Power News Network

Fall 2009 Water Resources
Seminar:
CORRUPTION AND ETHICS
ISSUES IN WATER
RESOURCES
*Wednesdays 4:00-5:00 pm
Owen Hall 102

- Sept. 30 Fuzzy Lines and Phantasmagorias in Water Ethics
W. Todd Jarvis, Institute for Water and Watersheds. OSU
- Oct. 7 Just the Facts: Licensing, Compliance, & the Role of the State Board
Steven Taylor Western Oregon Univ., Chair of OR State Board of Geologists.
- Monday, Oct. 12 Water Ethics and Hydrosolidarity
Malin Falkenmark , Stockholm International Water Institute (SIWI).
- Oct. 21 The Government Scientist: Charting an Ethical Role
Robert Lackey, Dept. of Fisheries and Wildlife OSU, formerly US. EPA
- Oct. 28 California's Water Mess: Is Anyone Doing Anything Right?
Lloyd Carter, Attorney and Water Issues Journalist
- Nov. 4 When Does 'Me First' Become Unethical and Corrupt? Water and Power in Monterrey, Mexico and along the Colorado R. Basin
Vivienne Bennett California State University-San Marcos
- Nov. 11 Water, Culture, Power: Dam Legacies, Damned Futures?
Barbara R. Johnston Center for Political Ecology, Santa Cruz, CA
- Nov. 18 Power, Water and Corruption: Past, Present and Future
Richard Paisley, JD Univ. of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC
- Dec. 2 Water: Do We Have Any Moral Obligation to the Future?
Kathleen Dean Moore Dept. of Philosophy, OSU

Photo by E. Staub, Courtesy of CDC and the Carter Center

 Please note that Prof. Malin Falkenmark's seminar will be held on Monday October 12 to avoid conflict with the annual Condon lecture scheduled for Wednesday that week