

Coastal Oregon Water Roundtable
A Flow Path for the Future of Oregon's Water Resources
Newport, Oregon
30 September 2008, noon – 6 PM
Hatfield Marine Science Center
Guin Library Seminar Room (Bldg. 909 on campus map)
For more information visit: water.oregonstate.edu/roundtables/index.htm

Financial support provided by: David Evans and Associates, Inc., Institute for Water and Watersheds, The Nature Conservancy

AGENDA

12:00 – 12:45 Registration and Lunch – hosted by the Institute for Water and Watersheds

12:45- 1:00: Introduction and Overview of Roundtable during Lunch

Rep. Jackie Dingfelder, Chair, House Energy and the Environment Committee

Facilitation 1

Terry Buchholz, David Evans and Associates, Inc.

1:00 - 1:45 Facilitation 1 – identification of issues

During this session, stakeholders will be asked to identify water issues and possible solutions. Verbal and written input will be obtained.

Presentations – Experts' Views

1:45 - 2:00 Overview of Oregon's Current Water Situation and Ongoing Working Groups

Gail Achterman, Director, OUS Institute for Natural Resources

2:00-2:15 Overview of Current Water Situation from a Region Manager's Perspective

Bill Ferber, OWRD Western Region Manager

2:15- 2:30 Environmental and Instream Flows

Wayne Hoffman, Coordinator, MidCoast Watersheds Council

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-3:00 Coastal Community Water Supplies and Forecasts

Lisa Gaines, Associate Director, OUS Institute for Natural Resources

3:00-3:15 Sneak Preview - Liquid Assets: The Story of Water Infrastructure

This major new documentary will air on PBS on October 1.

3:15-3:30 Coastal Community Water Planning

Lee Ritzman, Newport City Engineer

3:30-3:45 Break

Facilitation 2

Terry Buchholz, David Evans and Associates, Inc.

3:45- 5:45 Facilitation 2

During this session, the issues identified in Facilitation 1 will be refined and/or added to in light of the experts' presentations. The final list of issues will also be prioritized. Breakout sessions will be utilized. Any solutions proffered will also be listed.

5:45 – 6:00 Closing Remarks and Summary

Rep. Jackie Dingfelder, Chair, House Energy and the Environment Committee, others